

Name of Form:

Public Notice of Extended Filing for the Primary Election

Section Reference:

Sections 172.054 and 172.055, Texas Election Code

Purpose:

To give notice of the amended filing deadline after a candidate dies, withdraws, or is declared ineligible.

Number of Copies Required:

Please see Section 172.055, Texas Election Code, for the number of copies required and to whom they should be delivered.

Completed by:

The authority with whom the application was filed.

Filing Date:

Not later than 24 hours after candidate withdraws or is declared ineligible or not later than 24 hours after the authority preparing the notice learns of a candidate's death.

Filed with:

Delivered to at least one daily newspaper published in the county, or, if none, at least one weekly newspaper published in the county for a notice that is prepared by a County Chair.

Delivered to at least three daily newspapers that regularly maintain a news representative at the State Capitol, for a notice applicable to a statewide office or delivered to at least one daily newspaper published in each county wholly or partly situated in the district or, if none, at least one weekly newspaper published there, if any, for a notice prepared by the state chair for a district office.

Post a copy on the authority's Internet website, if one is maintained.

Send a copy of the notice to the Secretary of State, to be posted on the Secretary of State's Internet website, for a candidate for office filled by voters of more than one county; or the county clerk, to be posted on the county's Internet website, for an office filled by voters of a single county.

An extension of the filing deadline under this section applies only to the primary election of the political party for which the withdrawn, deceased, or ineligible candidate applied for a place on the ballot.
