

INSTRUCTIONS FOR EARLY VOTING COMBINATION FORM

All voters are required to have a form of acceptable identification or a voter may choose to vote provisionally without an acceptable form of ID. When a voter is accepted for voting under certain conditions of the law, the election official shall note the section of the Texas Election Code under which the voter was accepted. The following are explanations of those conditions and the section numbers of the laws that correspond with the explanations.

COMBINATION FORM CHECK BOX PROCEDURES

- 1. Voter (with acceptable identification) Who is Not on List:
Check the box labeled “Not on List 63.006” next to the voter’s name. Add voter’s name to the Registration Omissions List. Instruct the voter to initial the box in the “Affidavit of a Voter Not on List” column.
- 2. Voter (with acceptable identification) whose name on the presented identification does not exactly match but is “Substantially Similar” to the voter’s name on the Official List of Registered Voters:
Check the box labeled “Similar Name 63.001(c). Instruct the voter to initial the box in the “Similar Name Affidavit” column.
- 3. Voter votes a Provisional Ballot:
Check the box labeled “Provisional 63.011” if a voter votes a Provisional Ballot.
- 4. Voter shows a supporting form of identification and executes a “Reasonable Impediment Declaration 63.001(i)”:
Check the box labeled “Reasonable Impediment Declaration 63.001(i)”

OTHER REQUIREMENTS

- 5. Voter is Unable to Sign the Combination Form:
If a voter is unable to sign his or her name, enter the voter’s name on the signature line and make a notation of the reason the voter is unable to sign. Then, place a checkmark in the checkmark “√” column on the same line as the voter’s signature.
- 6. Voter has an Assistant that is NOT an election worker:
If a voter has an assistant of his or her own choosing, the name and address of the assistant must be noted on the Combination Form in the space provided. After adding the information, reference the line number on which the voter signed so the assistant is properly correlated to the voter assisted.
